PRINTED ON RECYCLED PAPER

Moved by Roper, supported by Krolczyk to adopt the amendments to the Manistee County Policy and Procedures for Retiree and Former Employee Health Insurance as stated below:

For staff retiring after January 1, 2011, the County's maximum obligation toward the premium cost will be $250.00 per month for Single coverage and $500.00 per month for Two Person coverage from the date of retirement until Medicare eligibility age. At the time the retiree and/or their spouse attains Medicare eligibility age, the retiree shall become responsible for the entire premium cost of any Medicare coordination benefit elected under this Policy.

For staff who turned sixty (60) prior to January 1, 2011 and retired after January 1, 2011, the retiree will be responsible for the entire premium cost from the date of retirement until Medicare eligibility age. Upon attaining Medicare eligibility age, the County's maximum obligation toward the premium cost for any Medicare coordination benefit elected under the Policy will be $250.00 per month for Single coverage and $500.00 per month for Two Person coverage from the date of Medicare eligibility age.
