This ordinance shall be officially known and described as the "Manistee County Planning Commission Ordinance."

102. Membership:

- A. The Planning Commission shall consist of seven (7) members appointed by the Manistee County Board of Commissioners. To be qualified to be a member and remain a member of the planning commission, the individual shall meet the following qualifications:
1. Shall be a qualified elector of the County of Manistee, except that one member may be a non-qualified elector;
  2. Shall not be a declared candidate for any political office, except this condition shall not apply to the Manistee County Board of Commissioners' representative to the commission, pursuant to Section 102.E.7 of this ordinance;
  3. After an individual's first appointment and before reappointment, shall have attended training for commission members, pursuant to Section 104 of this ordinance;
  4. Shall meet the conditions provided for each individual member in Sections 102.B., 102.D., 102.E. and 102.F. of this ordinance, except the geographical location of the individual's residency may be considered optional.
- B. Members shall be appointed for three-year terms. However, when first appointed, a number of members shall be appointed to one-year, two-year, or three-year terms such that, as nearly as possible, the terms of 1/3 of all commission members will expire each year. If a vacancy occurs, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as provided for an original appointment such that, as nearly as possible, the terms of 1/3 of all commission members continue to expire each year.

- C. Ex officio members shall include one member of the county board of commissioners.
- D. Every reasonable effort shall be made to insure that the membership of the county planning commission includes a member of a public school board, or an administrative employee of a school district included, in whole or in part, within the county's boundaries.
